Notes from Our Director

Wow! Where did January go? As most of you know we changed our annual Christmas event to the "Twelve Day of Christmas" luncheon. We did this hoping that we would have passed the Christmas Season when people are the busiest. As luck would have it the weather intervened and we had to put off our luncheon at the Nutwood Plantation in Lagrange to the following weekend. It's a good thing we did the weather was as remarkably good as the home cooked food. I would like to express our sincere appreciation to Neil and Tricia Liechty and their wonderful children for a memorable day at Nutwood. The Nutwood event also brought out several members attired in period dress for the occasion. We plan to do more of this in the future so break out the old hats and dresses for a fun experience as we drive our cars.

As promised we have been executing on last year's membership survey results. Among the results was the desire to have more technical meeting to teach members how to maintain and fix common problems with our cars. We had a very informative and hands on meeting at Tom Romine's home workshop where nearly 20 members learned the fine art of rebuilding distributors. This very productive meeting was followed by the hospitality of Liz Romine fixing lunch for the group. Look for us to have more of these events as the year goes along, I have it from good authority that water pumps are on the list. In addition, we have decided to add a new section to our newsletter entitled "Tech Tips", hopefully this will allow us share the knowledge of our members.

We have a action packed touring season this year and we have included a comprehensive list of planned and tentative events throughout the year in this newsletter. This list will change as we go through the year and our plans become firm. Look each month for these changes.

So what's planned for February? Well were going to start with our annual Valentine's Day lunch on February 18th. Look for details in this newsletter. Our touring will increase as the weather moderates and the days grow longer. Look for some "Flash Tours" this month, we will have some short notification tours that will take us out for the day to parts "unknown".

The entire board is energized and ready to get started with driving our cars. Let us know how you would like to help or give us ideas to make our club the best in the USA.

See you down the road,

-Jim

NUTWOOD PLANTATION POST-HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

By Steve Searock

On Sunday, January 15th, the Southside A's traveled to the Nutwood Plantation in LaGrange, for a buffet luncheon by the invitation from Neil and Trish Liechty.

Model A's in attendance. Several members were dressed in era correct attire.

After getting the gang assembled for a group picture on the front step of the stately manor, everyone then moved to the back yard, where tables were set up for dining. Jim Wingo called for a short meeting where he discussed some of the 2017 plans for the club, and other assorted topics. Jim then introduced three new members to the Southside A's; Terry and Neva Atkins, Frank and Mary Helen Benford, and Neil and Trish Liechty. Trish and Neil talked about their church and charity/organization, called, "Three Life, Hands Up", which is a group that works with the homeless. Neil gave an emotional speech about a high schooler

A handful of members met at the Sam's Club in Sharpsburg for the scenic 40 mile ride, led by Dick Carne, to the CVS, in LaGrange, where the group was met by a couple of more members and their A's. This contingent continued on to Nutwood, where other members had already arrived. In all, there was 40 members and guests, and around 12 that lives in a car with his family. We all appreciate, and applaud Neil and Trish for their efforts.

After Jim called an end to the meeting, everyone lined up for a delicious hot buffet. After eating lunch, we were served a wonderful custard, topped with vanilla ice cream.

While we were enjoying our desserts, drawings were held for door prizes, and 50/50 tickets were sold. I understand $255 was raised. Betty Fagundes was the big winner. Congrats to Betty. And both Betty and Southside A's chose to donate their winnings to the Liechty's charity, Three Life, Hands Up.

David Gerken, Phil Meyers, Kathie Meyers, and Dianne Gerken.

Thank you to Neil and Trish for so graciously having the club to their wonderful plantation. It really is a beautiful place.

Pam & Pat Tyler, a dashing example of a bygone age.

The weather was unbeatable, especially for the middle of January. Hopefully we'll have more 70* days this winter that will allow us to get our A's out and enjoy them. Hope to see everyone at the next club excursion, and again, welcome to the new members.

“DISTRIBUTORS” TECH MEET – SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 2017

By Steve Searock

On Saturday, January 28th, the Southside A's held a Tech Meet, hosted by Tom Romine. The subject of the meet was distributor rebuilding.

As members arrived, they were greeted by coffee and donuts. "Class" began with Tom giving an overview of the Model A distributor, and he explained some of the differences in the configurations of the distributor through the years. After that, the rebuilds began. The distributors were disassembled, cleaned, blasted, painted, and reassembled with new parts. In all, eight distributors were rebuilt. Most everyone in attendance learned something about the Model A distributor, and more than a couple of us learned a lot!!!

Our contingency of 21 attendees also enjoyed a nice hot dog lunch, which included, chips, pickles, drinks, and some desserts. Thank you, Liz Romine! A great way to top off the day.

Our host, Tom Romine.

Sean Hobbs shows how it's done.

Everyone gets involved.

AND THE WINNER IS.....

Many thanks to the more than 20 people who voted in our just-for-fun contest. The voting was a little more clustered this time around, with our top three being separated by just a few points. 2017 will see a whole new crop of enticing photos, so keep track of your favorites!

Era Fashions: Gwyneth Shotwell

Editor's Note: Since we are interested in reviving the fun of dressing up in era styles, we're republishing a story from 2013 which can give you some hints for putting together an outfit in a variety of ways. Enjoy!

As we showed you last month in the story about the MARC Meet, the Millers and Shotwells got decked out in their era-image finest for the evening of the Fashion Show, Ice Cream Social and exhibition of fine-point and A-400 cars. The makeup of their outfits, and how they were put together, shows several of Kathie's suggestions.

First up will be the Millers, Betty and Tom:

Betty's lovely flowered dress has a perfect era feel, accented by the split sleeves and lightweight flowing fabric in a flower print. She found this fetching frock at Ross Dress for Less, no less! This shows that simply having an understanding of the various period styles with some of the recognizable features, allows you to spot similar aspects in many of today's dresses.

The accessories Betty put together include her straw hat found in an antique mall, dainty earrings suitable to the period, and shoes purchased at T.J. Maxx. Her aluminum mesh 1930's handbag was actually discovered at an antique car swap meet, on a table featuring car parts. Turns out the wife of the vendor had a few items she wanted to sell, and placed them on display. You never know where you might find the perfect accent!

Tom is decked out in a wonderful seersucker suit in pale blue and white, sometimes called an "Ice Cream Suit." This was purchased at Jos. A Bank; again, current day clothing can harken back to the era, given the proper accessories. To that end, Tom added a vintage straw hat found at a flea market. He wore a pale pink Oxford shirt, and finished off his look with golf saddle shoes with the spikes removed (it only requires unscrewing them).

The Shotwells:

As you'll see on the next page, Mike is attired in an outfit combining era image with the modern day: His knickers (plus-fours) and argyle socks are from GolfKickers.com. The knickers are a polyester fabric, with elastic around the bottom of the pant legs. His golf cap is something that is readily found in a variety of stores, including department stores, hat stores and golf shops. His shoes, like Tom's, are golf shoes with spikes removed. The modern touch is his black polo shirt (which he wore to designate himself as the president of the A-400 club), which actually blends pretty well for the purpose of "era image."

Gwyneth made her dress from a 1930's vintage pattern purchased online at a Kathie Meyers-recommended website, vpil.org. (See below) It closely resembles the McCall's May, 1930 illustration of a tennis dress, seen below. Accessories include a straw cloche hat from a vintage store in Atlanta, closed sandals and small vintage-looking earrings from Dillard's (not expensive!), and white cotton gloves purchased that day at the fashion swap meet for $2.00.

So, you can see that there are many ways to put together fun clothes that are even more fun to wear, either when touring, or attending a Model A function. We strongly encourage you to give it a try, and feel free to contact any of us for pointers, questions, or just support in taking those first steps!
